Love Glows On

Name _____

God always loves us. God's family is called the "communion of saints." It includes people who have died. They continue to love us, and we continue to love them. We remember them by lighting candles called "votive lights." Have you ever lit one?

Do you know people who have died? They share everlasting life with Jesus. "Light" candles for them by coloring a flame for each one. Tell who they are.

Each candle has three words. Circle the word that means something different from the others. Write it on the correct line below. Then say this prayer for your loved ones who have died.

Eternal _____ grant to _____, O Lord,

Jesus and the Children

Blessing (Mark 10:13-16)

One day, while Jesus was talking to the people, he told them something very special about children. Solve the acrostic to learn what Jesus said. To solve the puzzle, first write the answers to the picture clues. Then transfer the letters to the numbered blanks in the quote.
